

The Daily Courant.

Tuesday, November 5. 1706.

From the Leiden Gazette, dated Nov. 5.

Rome, Oct. 16.

THE 9th Instant Cardinal Grimani receiv'd Letters by an Expreis from the Court of Vienna, which he forthwith communicated to Cardinal Paolucci the Pope's chief Minister: Hereupon a Report was spread, that by these Letters the Emperour demanded a free Passage through the Territories of the Church, for some Troops that he designs to send to the Kingdom of Naples; and some say the Pope has since held several Congregations of Cardinals on that Subject, but none pretend to tell us the Result of them. Cardinal Grimani had an Audience of the Pope the 13th Instant. His Eminency furnishes the Neapolitans that are Prisoners in the Castle of St. Angelo, (and who are allow'd but 10 Sols a Day to live upon,) with whatever they want; and keeps in his House several others, who are to go to Naples with the Forces the Emperour proposes to send thither. To avoid all Contest with his Imperial Majesty, 500 Spaniards who some time ago came into Garrison in Ascoli, Civita-Castela, Tivoli, and Sabiaco, are sent back into the Kingdom of Naples; but their Rooms are supplied by a Detachment of 10 Men of each Company of our Garrison, who march'd from hence the Night between the 12th and 13th Instant, and by a considerable Number of Sbirris who follow'd the others last Night. Don Annibal Albani, and the Cardinals Paolucci, Marscotti, and Pignatelli, are gone to that Part of the Country, under Pretence of taking the Air, but rather to have an Eye to the Pope's Interests. The Duke d'Uzeda Ambassador of Spain, has had several Conferences in the Monastery of the Carthusians, with the Cardinals Giudici and de la Tremouille, and have since sent several Expresses to the Viceroy of Naples, to communicate to him such Methods as they think proper for him to take, to oppose the Invasion with which he is threaten'd by the Imperialists.

From the Antwerp Courant, dated Nov. 9.

Rosès, Oct. 23. Nine of the Enemy's Ships, whereof 2 are large Men of War, who had block'd up this Place by Sea above 5 Weeks, sail'd yesterday, as is suppos'd for Barcelona. We are now stor'd with Provisions for a whole Year.

From the Antwerp Courant, dated Nov. 9.

Pèrpignan, Oct. 27. The 25th Instant arriv'd here a Reinforcement of 5 Regiments of Foot and 2 of Horse from Languedoc, so that now the Body of Troops commanded by the Duke de Noailles, which is at present encamp'd within half a League of this Place, consists of 8 or 9000 Men. The said Duke waits for Orders from Court how to employ these Forces. Mean time we have Intelligence that a great Number of Catalonians are drawn together between Urgel and Puycerda, and that both those Places are very well provided for Defence. 'Tis believ'd Part of our Troops will be sent to Spain by the Way of Navarre.

From the Leid. Gaz. Nov. 9. and Par. Lett. Nov. 1.

Paris, Nov. 1. Letters from Madrid of the 29th of last Month advise, that King Philip would set out the next Day for Segovia, to meet the Queen in her Return to Madrid, and that great Preparations were made at several Places on the Road as well as at Madrid for her Reception. The Duke of Berwick continues his march into the Kingdom of Valencia in Pursuit of the Allies, who (say these last Advices,) were at Bunol: The County of Helche, situate between Orighuela and Alicant, has return'd to its Obedience to King Philip, and most of the Inhabitants have taken Arms for him. The Troops that took Cuenza, have Order after they have repair'd the Fortifications of that Place; to pass into Navarre, and joynly with the Forces of that Country to march against the Rebels of Arragon.

From the Antwerp Courant, dated Nov. 9.

Suza, Oct. 26. We continue to store great Magazines here. M. Albergotti with 15 or 16000 Men and about 40 Pieces of Cannon is arriv'd near Exilles, and is expected here to Morrow. The Duke of Savoy has caus'd all the Castles in the Plain of Turin to be raz'd, and all the Corn and Forrage to be carried out of the Villages to Turin; so that if our Army march towards that City, they must have their Subsistence sent after them from this Place and Pignerol, which will be very difficult and hazardous. The Savoyards have taken the Castle of Ivrea, and the unexpected Loss of Alexandria has occasion'd the surrender of the Castle of Tortona to the Enemy likewise at Discretion. We are still possess'd of Mortara, Valenza, and Casal.

Grenoble, Oct. 28. All the Troops are now on the March to Suza; only 6 Battallions and 3 Regiments of Dragoons are left in Garrison in this Place and Briancon, to secure our Convoys that will be continually sending to Suza, from the Excursions of the Vaudois. 12000 Musquets, and several Chests with Swords, Pistols, &c, are arriv'd here, for the Use of the Troops.

Falmouth, October 31. This Day came in the Walgar Privateer of Middleburg from cruising, but last from Lisbon, having taken in her Cruise 6 Prizes. Also a Ship of and from Dublin for Lisbon, which was taken last Sunday by a French Privateer of 26 Guns, and ransom'd.

London, November 5.

Advice came Yesterday in the Afternoon, that the Fleet from Barbadoes, consisting of 20 Merchant Ships, under Convoy of 2 Men of War, is arriv'd at Plymouth.

Edinburgh, Oct. 29. The Protestation given in by the Earl of Errol, Lord High Constable, (mention'd in the Minutes of Oct. 25) was in the following Terms, viz. That he for himself, and in Name of such as should adhere to his Protestation, protested, That the continuing of standing Forces within the Town of Edinburgh, and keeping Guard with them in the Parliament-Clois and other Places within the the Town the time of Parliament, (as at present is done) is contrary to the Right of his Office as high Constable; by which he has the only Privilege of Guarding the Parliament without Doors, as the Earl Marischal has within Doors, and is an Incroachment on the Rights and Privileges of Parliament, and on the particular Rights and Privileges of the Town of Edinburgh; and if any Vore shall pass contrary to his said Right, or the Right of the Earl Marischal, or Rights and Privileges of Parliament, or the Town of Edinburgh, That it shall not in any Time hereafter prejudice the same, or be any ways drawn in Consequence; And he desir'd the said Protestation to be insert in the Minuts, and Recorded in the Books of Parliament.

Which Protestation being Read, the said Earl of Errol did take Instruments thereupon, and the Duke of Hamilton, Duke of Athol, Marquess of Annandale, Earl Marischal, Earl of Wigton, Earl of Strathmore, Earl of Selkirk, Earl of Kincardin, Viscount of Stormount, Viscount of Kilsyth, the Lord Semple, the Lord Oliphant, the Lord Balmerinoch, the Lord Blantyre, the Lord Bargany, the Lord Beilhaven, the Lord Colvil and the Lord Kinnaird, George Lockhart of Carnwath, Sir James Foulis of Collingtoun, Andrew Fletcher of Saltoun, John Brisbane of Bithoptoun, Mr. William Cochran of Kilmaronock, John Steuart of Kinwhinlick, John Grahame of Killearn, James Grahame of Bucklyvie, Robert Rollo of Powhouse, Sir Patrick Murray of Auchtertyre, John Murray of Strowan, Sir Thomas Burnett of Leys, Alexander Gordon of Pitlurg, James More of Stoniewood, Mr. Patrick Lyon of Auchterhouse, David Grahame of Fintry, James Ogilvie younger of Boyn, Alexander McGie of Palgown, Mr. James Dumbbar younger of Hemprigs, George Mackenzie of Inchcoulter, Alexander Robertson, Alexander Edgar, Alexander Duff, Francis Mollison, Robert Kellie, Mr. William Suherland, Archbald Shiells, Mr. John Lyon, Mr. John Caruthers, George Home, Mr. James Bethun, John Bayne and Mr. Robert Frazer adhered thereto.
